GRAFT, CRUELTY AND INCAPACITY

Sensational Charges Against Supt. H. H. Thomas of the State Industrial.

NEW LIQUOR ORDINANCE

Up Before City Council, Increasing License Fees—State Deaf and Blind School Commencement.

OGDEN, June 8.—Charges of cruel treatment to inmates of the state industrial school; graft of funds entrusted to him to be used for the needs of the school, an utter incapacity of conducting the affairs of the institution in a proper way and for the betterment of the youthful delinquents in his charge have been made against Superintendent H. H. Thomas and formally presented to Governor William Spry by a group of prominent citizens of Ogden. The charges are preferred by former employees of the institution under whose observation the irregularities are said to have occurred.

When Governor Spry reached Ogden late yesterday afternoon the committee composed of Mrs. Kate S. Hillard, Mrs. J. M. Bishop and Rev. Noble Strong Eldredge made a formal presentation of the charges against Superintendent Thomas. Governor Spry promised to give the matter his immediate and careful attention and take what steps he deems proper as soon as an investigation can be conducted.

The meeting which was presided over by Mrs. Kate S. Hillard was addressed by former employees of the school who told of the alleged cruelties of the inmates as was practiced upon them by Superintendent Thomas. The principal speaker was J. H. Scott, of Logan, formerly employed at the state industrial school as an instructor in manual training. His testimony was of a sensational order and brought forth a bitter denunciation of Superintendent Thomas by those assembled at the meeting.

Mr. Scott recited a number of instances of the whipping of the inmates. One case he recalled to mind was that of the whipping of a boy by Superintendent Thomas with a strap, until the boy's clothing was cut to shreds. Another case he told of was that of David Buck, who died at the school as the result of scarlet fever, so it was reported. According to the statement made by Mr. Scott the boy had been ill in bed with scarlet fever and during a time when he was out of his bed he cut the bed quilt into little strips and for so doing he was punished with a strap at the discretion of Superintendent Thomas. He also told of the miserable food furnished the inmates and the poor sanitation, in speaking of the cases of graft at the school Scott stated that at one time he worked for three weeks at the Thomas residence in the city doing carpenter work, and for which the state paid him his wages.

Mrs. D. T. Tracy, a former matron of the girl's cottage told of the cruelties heaped upon them by Thomas. Said that on one occasion while two boys were being rawhided the band was playing in the front yard so the screams of agony and pain of the ones being punished could not be heard by other inmates and neighbors. Mrs. Tracy told of the numerous attempts at suicide made by the girls who stated that they would rather die than stay there. A recent attempt at suicide she said occurred last Sunday afternoon when a girl tried to kill herself by cutting her throat with scissors. The girl committed this act because she did not receive the merits that had been promised her.

The other speakers told of the cruelty of the inmates by Thomas and his assistants also of the bread and water diet that boys and girls both received for the slightest infraction of the rules.

At the conclusion of the meeting resolutions were adopted asking the governor to remove Superintendent Thomas because of his manifest unfitness. The committee stated that it stood ready to produce evidence and attached three letters to the resolutions giving further evidence. When the governor was in the city last evening the resolutions together with other papers were submitted to him. He stated that he would attend to the matter immediately upon his return to Salt Lake City and take whatever action he deemed proper.

In an interview had with Superintendent Thomas since the mass meeting preferred the charges against him, he classes the charges as rank falsehoods, and demands that an investigation be had. "I wish to state," he said, "that I deny absolutely and unqualifiedly all of the charges and statements made by ex-employees of the state industrial school. When Governor Spry calls an investigation, I will be ready to answer all of the charges, and to explain my position clearly."

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL.

OGDEN, June 9.—At last night's meeting of the city council, an ordinance regulating the sale, manufacture and the selling of intoxicating liquors was introduced and passed its first reading, going to the license committee for a report. The ordinance, with but a few changes, is practically the same under which the liquor traffic of Salt Lake is managed. The licenses heretofore required of dealers each quarter were raised as follows: Retail dealers from $250 to $375; wholesale from $150 to $225; manufacturer's license from $250 to $500; manufacturers from $100 to $200; manufacturer's agents, $200, and druggists at $150.

Before the regular session was called, the council held an executive session, which the appropriation of $1,500 asked for the entertainment of the G. A. R. veterans who will attend the national encampment next summer, was discussed. The council adjourned until next Wednesday evening, at which time the appropriation will be passed upon.

DEAF AND BLIND SCHOOL.

OGDEN, June 8.—Interesting exercises at the annual commencement of the State School for the Deaf and Blind were held in the gymnasium last evening. Governor William Spry delivered the commencement address. His subject was "Utah and Her Resources." The executive referred to the educational advantages which are offered by the state, and said that it was his desire to see more high schools established throughout Utah. If Utah continues the expenditure of money for educational purposes as it has in the past, Governor Spry declared that it will soon be in the foremost ranks with other states of the Union in the standard of its educational facilities. In closing, he stated that he was particularly proud of the state institution which is rendering a helping hand to those who are in need of help more than others. The graduates were Miss Janie McClellan of Dempsy, Ida, and Murray Allen of Mercur, Utah. The following program was rendered: Overture, "Martha," orchestra; invocation, S. W. Jenkinson; piano, "Dein Elgen," Lange, Ellen Youngstrom; "Colonial Literature," Janie McClellan; "Holy City," orchestra; "Outlook for American Literature," Murray Allen; tenor solo and male chorus, "Alma Mater," James Jacobs and chorus; address, Governor William Spry; piano, "Mazurka," Top, 33, No. 4, Chopin, Janie McClellan; presentation of diplomas, president Maud May Babcock; "Bohemian Girl," orchestra.

With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aught. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

RECENT DEATHS

Robertson, James.—At Spanish Fork James Robertson, one of the most prominent characters and highly esteemed citizens of Utah county died Saturday, May 29. He was born in Paulds Glenisla, Forfar, Scotland, Sept. 22, 1827. When but a boy he came to Utah with his father and his widowed mother became members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and on January 1, 1850, left their native land to establish themselves in a new home in Zion.

Their mother died at Council Bluffs, and the boys continued their journey settling at Spanish Fork. Deceased married Matilda Graham, May 4, 1855, who together with five daughters survive him. In him was found the noble qualifications of the pioneer, and if he ever failed as such it was in overtaxing his strength rather than shirking a duty. He was ordained a high priest February 24, 1863, by George A. Smith and acted as counselor to A. K. Thurber in the bishopric for a number of years. He was in charge of the high priest's quorum of this place at the time of his death. In laboring for the building up of Spanish Fork and its interests, he has been an indefatigable worker for over 50 years. A builder of bridges, roads and canals, at the same time a defender of Zion in every sense of the word, with a never waning faith in the gospel of Christ. He was universally respected and honored for his integrity.

A Mighty Ruler, He Who wisely rules himself.

Curious what a scrap you have now and then (maybe two or three "nows" and several "thens") with what the old Scotchman called the "deevlish part" of your make-up.

It's safe to say "you" and not "miss the mark, for we all belong to the same lodge, and it seems to be a part of some great plan to try us out and see if we can thus earn the right to rule greater things.

Most every day some one of the many "warriors of the enemy" comes across your pathway and puts up a scrap to see if he can rule.

You must be well trained and alert or he will make you bend the knee or, perhaps, break a leg or permanently cripple you.

There are several of these "enemies" which can be named over, but for the purpose of this article let us speak of the narcotics, the family which includes morphine, whisky, coffee, cocaine, tea, tobacco, etc., All the same family, each member having a different degree of strength. Now, coffee is perhaps one of the most plausible and deceitful of them all.

It has many friends, but coolly and cunningly knives them, and they don't know where the blow comes from.

Many and many a poor, nervous wreck with weak heart, suffers by day and lies sleepless at night without suspecting that his "dear old friend," Mr. Coffee, is quietly pushing him along towards the silent city. No, coffee don't hurt everyone by any manner of means, but it does pick out the highly organized individuals and wrecks them by the score.

Perhaps the victim realizes it, but has fallen time and again in the battle and been whipped so often that he has given up and bowed the head to the chain of his master.

"I Simply cannot give up my coffee," is the wail, and so day by day he grovels and the master stretches him a few turns tighter on the rack of suffering.

Make sure of one thing: Once you become conscious of the fact that a fight is on, suffering follows steadily until you are able to rule.

Then comes the reward—comfort, health and happiness for the victor.

It is good work to stand right up an smash away with a "mailed fist" but it's much more comfortable to whip Mr. Coffee by throwing him "right over the side of the mountain" and give his place to Postum.

A steaming, fragrant cup of this famous beverage has the clear seal-brown color which changes to a rich golden brown under cream.

Of times, remarkable changes quickly follow the victory of one's better self over a known enemy. Peaceful sleep, balanced nerves, stronger heart, and all the joy which comes after the removal of a drug and its replacement with natural food elements which old Dame Nature is only too glad to seize upon the building material so badly needed and so long denied.

Well, here's best wishes to you, reader. Hope you don't get "licked" too often, it's weakening.
